

Please join us for a screening of
SOMEDAY MELISSA
The story of an eating disorder, loss and hope.

In recognition of Eating Disorders Awareness Week, Reflections invites you to please join us for a dessert reception and screening of the documentary film, Someday Melissa. Following the film Judy Arvin, Melissa's mother and the film's producer, will share her story.

The film, and the discussion following, will give clinicians, school professionals and others in the field the opportunity to truly see the impact that an eating disorder has on the family.
